

Please do not alter Indiana's telemarketing telephone privacy law. Since its inception, it has been a blessing. It allows telephone subscribers the peace we deserve without unwanted telemarketing calls. Before the law was enacted, we would receive ten or more unwanted calls per day. Now we have our solitude. Let us keep it.